Wilmer	Sangston	Mr. Speaker.—35.
Temples	Thawley

So the house refused to strike out.

Mr. Ridgely then moved to amend said message by striking out after the word "law" in the 15th line, down to the word "judgments," inclusive.

On the question being put, will the house agree to strike out?

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred on assenting to the said message, and on the same being put—

It was determined in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Phelps,

The house took up for consideration the order of the day, being the bill entitled, an act to provide for the calling of a convention, the unfinished business of yesterday.

The question being on the amendment offered by Mr. Graves to the report of the committee of the whole.

The committee of the whole having reported the substitute offered by Mr. Mason, as amended by the amendment proposed by Mr. Gaither.

The Speaker resumed the chair.

Mr. Bowie moved to strike out the enacting clause of the bill.

Before the question was put,

On motion of Mr. Holmes,

The house was called and the door-keeper sent after the absent members in the city.

On motion of Mr. Tuck,

All further proceedings under the call of the house were dispensed with.

On the question being put, will the house agree to strike out the enacting clause.
